FROM THE CANTOR

If someone were to ask you: Do you remember where you were and what you were doing exactly 10 years ago today, would you know? It is highly unlikely, unless you were asked that question on September 11, 2011. Then, there is a very good chance you would remember, just as many of us who are old enough, remember where we were and what we were doing the day JFK was assassinated. Both events were traumas that left indelible imprints on our national and individual psyches.

There will be many events this year to commemorate the tenth anniversary of 9/11. The focus of attention will likely be on Ground Zero, where the two World Trade Center Towers were brought crashing to the ground in an act of evil terror. For many years, as a commuter between Brooklyn and Manhattan, I had walked beneath those Twin Towers; I would shop there, book browse, or sit down to relax with a cup of coffee in the early morning. It is still chilling for me to think that in a few brief moments, the places that had been a part of my daily life were reduced to rubble. Far more chilling is the thought of all the precious lives extinguished, in New York, Washington, and over Pennsylvania, and so many more lives, forever changed, by the loss of loved ones and friends. It was an episode of unspeakable horror.

But it was also one of great heroism. We must never forget, and always be grateful, to those who rushed into raging infernos to rescue their fellow citizens, and for the courageous sacrifice of those on board United Flight 93.

Historians will long study and debate the impact of 9/11 on our nation and on the world. It is too early for definitive judgments to be made. But what we know for sure is that the world is a different place today because of what happened on that morning in 2001. For now, as we approach the solemn tenth anniversary, let us take the time to remember those who died, and those who sacrificed so that others might live. And let us offer our prayers, that as we navigate this post 9/11 world, we may do so with renewed strength and confidence, in peace and in security, and always with the utmost appreciation for our nation, its people, and its values.

With the High Holidays upon us, I wish to take this opportunity to extend to you my heartfelt wishes for a Shana Tova u’Metukah. May this be a sweet New Year for you, your loved ones, and for the entire TBO/BT family.

Bivracha,

Cantor Steven Stern

A TRUE YANKEE FAN!

1025 Schleifer Road
Hillside, NJ 07205
June 28, 2011

As most of you know, I am a fervent New York Yankee fan. My father was a Yankee fan, so like father, like son, I became one as a young boy when I first discovered baseball. Thankfully this tradition has continued with my daughter Elana and son Laurence, and hopefully the next generation will continue this legacy.

On June 26, 2011, I attended my 50th consecutive NY Yankee Old Timer's Day. Over the years this day has been transformed from honoring both Yankees and other teams' old timers, to strictly honoring NY Yankees. Back in 1962, my first year of attending this game, both Jackie Robinson & Bob Feller were inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame, and they were honored guests that day, along with celebrating the 25th Anniversary of the 1937 All-Star team, and its players.

To commemorate the occasion, I paid the Yankees to put my name on their "Welcome" scoreboard in May. A week later I got a call from the Yankees. They wanted to honor my loyalty and told me my name would be both "welcomed on the scoreboard" and "announced" to the crowd (a more expensive recognition) during the game. In both instances I would not have to pay for these recognitions.

Following the three inning Old Timer's Exhibition game I was interviewed by a Yankee representative, and that interview was put on the Diamond Vision scoreboard in center field. Enclosed you will find copies of the announcements and a picture of the interview.

I was also interviewed by phone by the Daily News, and at the game by Major League Baseball. Finally, the Yankees upgraded my seat for the game, and I sat behind the visitor's dugout. Overall, the treatment by the Yankees was spectacular, the day was surreal, and with a Yankee 6-4 win, pleasant beyond words.

We all have something we enjoy doing, and being a Yankee fan is one of mine. And with 27 World Series titles, it is good to know the object of one's attention are such WINNERS!

Thank you & LET'S GO YANKS.

Michael E. Miller

FROM THE PRESIDENTS

As we taste the last days of summer, we are saddened by the recent losses to our TBO/BT family. We hope that as a community, we touched the lives of the bereaved families in meaningful ways.

We also rejoiced with our member families as they celebrated aufrufs, graduations, Josh's Bar Mitzvah, baby namings, births of grandchildren and weddings.

As we take personal stock of ourselves before Rosh Hashannah and Yom Kippur 5772, we do the same on the communal level. With this in mind, we have spruced up the synagogue. For the board members and committees it has been a summer of planning for the new year.

Part of this planning includes each of us - participate - offer suggestions - respect each other - work on committees - say "yes" when asked - and stretch a bit to support our synagogue financially.

We look forward to sharing with each of you a year of health, peace and contentment.

Shanah Tovah,

Thelma, Lillian, Jon

SISTERHOOD PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

As you know, Sisterhood was unable to find a single individual to serve as president this year. The presidium consists of Diane Goldstein and Helene Davis, Louise Cangelosi, Esther Schlesinger and Sebley Hausler. I will be writing the bulletin articles each month.

Sisterhood kicked off the year on Friday August 5 when we conducted services for Sisterhood Shabbat. Yasher koach to Fern Cammy for organizing the service. We want to thank all the women who participated: Helene Davis, Diane Goldstein, Sebley Hausler, Louise Cangelosi, Cheryl Orson, Nancy Kelner, Joleen Fridson, Shirley Ratner, Leah Davidson, Marilyn Weinstein, and Florence Bernstein.

On August 29 we held our first summer game night at Esther Schlesinger’s home. Thanks to Esther and Jay for barbecuing instead of serving our usual deli sandwiches. It was a nice change.
Please mark your calendars for Sisterhood’s first general meeting on Monday, September 19, when we will have a lawyer discussing eldercare law. The members of the presidium join me in wishing everyone l’shana tovah and hope each of you has a prosperous, healthy and happy 5772.
Louise Cangelosi

FROM THE MEN'S CLUB PRESIDENT

The Men's Club has been busy this past summer and looks forward to an active Holiday season and that's GOOD. We've had our monthly meetings (2nd Thursday of the month) and added a game night (4th Thursday of the month). Both have been well attended. Our calendar has been combined with the temple's and lots of events are planned for the coming year. Meetings, Special Adult Program, Sunday Morning Men's Club Health Series, Sukkoth Building and Barbeque, High Holiday Ushering, Men's Club Shabbat, World Wide Wrap, Regional Men's Club Man and Youth of the Year Dinner, Devil's Game Night, and this year a Regional Men's Club Retreat. Our Men's Club is an opportunity for the men of this temple to have social, educational, service and religious events to enrich our lives, our families' lives and the community through participation.

As the High Holidays grow closer and a time of reflection comes over our Jewish community here at Beth O'r/Beth Torah, I personally would like to thank my Board and Officers who on most days have someone around at the temple working on some project or event. To single out one would insult the others, and I must congratulate everyone on the Men's Club board for working so hard TOGETHER, as one, to make our community better in our own small ways.

Please contact Mike Goldstein to volunteer for ushering this year and Mike Miller for any ideas for future events.

Hold November 16th for the Regional Man and Youth of the Year Dinner at the Grand Marquis. Our club's past honorees will choose this year's recipients. Reservations are available through Paul Hymanson for the event. Congratulatory ads are also available for your participation.

Sheri and I wish you all to be inscribed and sealed in the Book of Life for the New Year.

Remember: Don't just be an observer, be a PARTICIPANT in our movement of Conservative Jewish Men.

May 5772 be a Sweet Year of Health for All of Us.
