FROM THE CANTOR

I had a recent conversation with an individual who related how surprised he was to learn of a video on the Internet showing part of an informal talk he had once given. He had assumed no one except those present knew about his talk, and yet, here it was, out there before the entire world. Likewise, many folks are surprised that if they do an Internet search of themselves, they will find things they had no idea were circulating in cyberspace. The fact is, anything we say, or do, can potentially be recorded for everyone to see for all of time.

This brings to mind a teaching from Pirke Avot. This compendium of aphorisms and teachings of our Sages dates back to the Mishnaic period and is remarkably relevant to this day. The second of the six chapters begins with a teaching of Rabbi Judah the Prince, known as Rebbi, who was in fact the compiler and editor of the Mishna itself. “Ponder three things and you will avoid committing sin: Know what is above you – an Eye that sees, an Ear that hears, a Book in which all your deeds are recorded.”

Now, if Rebbi were living in our day and sharing his wisdom, he may have taught that our deeds are all recorded not in a book but on a smartphone. We often hear about some public individual who is speaking “off the record” before a small group and whose words are recorded surreptitiously and made public for all. Indeed, an eye is always watching and an ear is always listening. In some ways this may be a good thing, in that we get to learn what a person whose views may matter to us is actually saying behind closed doors. But at the same time, there ought to exist the possibility for folks to limit the exposure of their expressed views, especially if those views may be on delicate subject matters, or could be easily taken out of context. Likewise, a performer should be able to perform in a setting or under conditions that may not be artistically ideal, and not be concerned that his or her professional image may be at risk because it is recorded. And in a similar vein, the case can be made that one ought to be able to communicate privately by email without worrying that what one writes will be made available for the entire world to read. While there are surely benefits to transparency, there is also a benefit to not discouraging the free, honest and open expression of ideas that may result if everything is recorded for all of posterity.

Of course, the eye and ear Rebbi was referring to belong to G-d. And Rebbi is of course correct, that always having an awareness that our words and deeds are known to Him is a good thing. It should make us better people. I suppose one can argue that the eyes and ears of the iPhone can do likewise. I’m not comfortable with it, but we may have little choice but to reconcile with the new reality of our time, and then simply try to embrace its positive aspects.

The summer is upon us, and there is the custom among many to study Pirke Avot during this season. It is a good custom and I highly recommend it. It connects us with our Sages’ view of the world and offers a guide on how to live a good life, in doses that can be easily absorbed into the heart and mind.

As this is my final bulletin article until September, I want to take this opportunity to thank everyone for a year in which we at TBOBT accomplished many things. One highlight was surely the dedication of our new bima window wall, but more important is that we filled our beautiful sanctuary with many wonderful activities and programs, too many to mention. I especially wish to thank all who have worked so hard this year to create and maintain our vibrant community, also too many to mention. But let us not be content with the accomplishments of the past. There is much to do, and we need everyone’s input and participation. Please join us!

B’vracha,
Cantor Steven Stern

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Shalom,

How fast time flies by! It's hard to believe I have been your President for almost a year now. We started off the year with our Labor Day, Open House BBQ, bus trip to Sands Casino, Bimah Wall Dedication, Menorah Lighting, New Member and Shabbat Across America Dinner, where we welcomed 14 families, and our beautiful well attended Community Passover Seder and our Mother's Day Breakfast, just to name a few events. As I begin my second term, I want to assure you that I will continue to keep our Congregation on the upbeat by trying new ideas and new programs; we will achieve the goals we have set. I look forward to our 2013-2014 Congregation Board with some new faces along with new projects and ideas.

I like to wish a hearty Mazel Tov to Steve Hurok on being named Minyan Man of the Year. A well deserved honor.

During the summer months, things seem to slow down. Always remember we are there for you. If you know of someone who is ill or in need, please contact me or Cantor Stern.

In closing, for anyone who could not attend our Mother's Day Breakfast I want to share these thoughts with you and also thank Michael Goldstein and Jay Schlesinger for being our chefs for our breakfast.

SISTERHOOD PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Sisterhood celebrated another successful year on May 30 with our Donor Dinner. Yasher koach to Sebley Hausler for a job well done. Our transitional board meeting will be held June 17 at 8:00 PM.

We are pleased to announce that Joleen Fridson will be Sisterhood President for 2013 - 2014, and that Ellen Cohen will be incoming Program Vice President.

When I was cleaning the attic prior to our move to Delaware, I found the speech I wrote for my installation as president of Sisterhood at Congregation Adath Israel in Woodbridge on May 31, 1987. It is as applicable today as it was 26 years ago. I am sharing part of it now.

"I have written an acrostic for a word that is very important to the future of Sisterhood, Men's Club and the Congregation.

C – Commitment. Without people committed to our organization we cannot function.

O – Organization. It is the essence of our being. Without the commitment of our members, we have no organization.

O – Organizers. We need people who are willing to take on projects and carry them through.

P – People. You've all heard of Toys R Us and Kids R Us. In Sisterhood you might say People R Us.

E – Energy. This is something we all wish we had more of. But we can channel some of the energy we have into Sisterhood projects.

R – Responsibility. Most of us don't want more than we already have, but a little bit help won't hurt and things will run smoother for Sisterhood.

A – Activities. Participating in meetings, social functions or fundraisers. We need your support.

Golden Books

To send a Golden Book for any occasion, call:
Joan Oberman (732-381-4322)
Evie Shulman (908-276-6894)
Betty Needleman (908-389-0911)

Cards are sent for $3.00 and you will receive $1.50 donor credit, or pick up a pack of 10 cards for $20.00 with $15.00 donor credit and send them yourself. They can be picked up from the office. Please send checks to Esther Schlesinger (9 Pine Ridge Dr., Edison, NJ 08820) or call (732) 548-7132 for the amount owed.

T – Teamwork. No one should take on the world by herself. Teamwork lightens the load.

I – Ideas. Sisterhood always welcomes new ideas.

O – Open-minded. We have to remember that just because "we never did it that way before" doesn't mean we can't try it.

N – New Year. We are beginning a new year for Sisterhood. I'd like you to stop now for a minute and, if you didn't fall asleep or miss a letter or two, ask you to reflect on my word for this evening – COOPERATION. I would like to see more cooperation in the next year. Many people sharing the work can accomplish a lot more than a few people trying to do everything."

Now, as then, I want to thank everyone for supporting Sisterhood's ongoing projects such as Tribute Fund, Special Fund, ShopRite and A&P vouchers, for shopping in the gift shop, and for supporting special projects such as Lord & Taylor's Shop Smart Do Good. Please continue to do so, and let's make next year even better.

I hope everyone has a wonderful summer.

FROM THE MEN'S CLUB PRESIDENT

It is hard to believe that we are in the last month of the 2012-2013 fiscal year.

On June 9, after the Minyanaire of the Year Breakfast, recognizing Steve Hurok, we will hold our annual meeting to elect our slate of officers and trustees to serve the Club for the fiscal year, July 1, 2013 to June 30, 2014.

The nominees are as follows:

Michael F. Goldstein - President

William Hausler - Executive Vice President

Paul Hymanson - Financial Vice President

Dennis Berry - Membership Vice President

Dr. Michael Miller - Ritual & Program Vice President

Jay Schlesinger - Treasurer

Theo Moreines - Recording & Corresponding Secretary

Trustees - Alan Mandelbaum, Richard Lavroff, Howard Silverman & Arthur Purdy

Men's Club Shabbat, which was held on May 3 & 4 was very successful. Dr. Michael W. Miller did a yeomen's job to fill parts for services (English and Hebrew). Yasher koach to Dr. Mike. In addition, we hosted our Special Adult friends from around the area.

Thank you to all TBO/BT members who donated to our Yom Hashoah, Yellow Candle and Sunday, April 7 program. Yasher koach to Dr. Mike for all his work. This was one of our best programs of the past year.

Also, our May program on eye care with Dr. Marc Needleman was most informative and very well attended.

At our Sunday, June 2 program, Andrew Dorsch will be demonstrating his culinary skills that brought him recognition for his techniques.

Lastly, we are participating in the Northern NJ Region raffle again. This year, we are using the proceeds we retain ($9 of every book we sell) to replace our Sukkah that Hurricane Sandy destroyed.

We wish everyone a great summer.
