FROM THE CANTOR

The High Holidays are “early” this year, arriving so soon after Labor Day. There are lots of things to do to prepare, and a dedicated group of our fellow congregants has been busy at work with the many tasks that need to be done. A yasher koach to them all!

Now, you may be wondering: Why do the holidays arrive early in some years, and late in others? Why will we be celebrating this year Hanukkah together with Thanksgiving?

The answer is, of course, that our Jewish calendar is based on a lunar cycle that yields 354 days, eleven less than the solar calendar. It therefore brings the holidays closer each year, until that is, we insert an extra month of Adar II in the leap years that occur seven times in every nineteen-year cycle. If not for that adjustment, we would be sitting down for the Pesach Seder some years in the midst of the winter cold or the heat of summer!

But whether the holidays are early or late, our task is to be ready, and I mean, especially, from a spiritual perspective. It is not easy to transition from vacation time one week to the intensity of the Days of Awe the next. The daily recitation of the 27th Psalm and the blasts of the shofar during the month of Elul help in that regard, but a little extra focus and intention on our part is also required. If we make the effort, the reward is a holiday experience that is more meaningful and elevating.

As we begin the New Year 5774, I wish to extend to the TBOBT family my best wishes for a year that is filled with the blessings of good health, happiness and peace.

Shanah tovah,

Cantor Steven Stern

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Shalom!

Time goes by very fast, summer is ending already and a New Year is about to begin. I have been asked by many congregants how was my first year as President of Temple Beth Or-Beth Torah. Was it overwhelming? How many calls did you receive? What sort of problems do you hear? All these questions I have heard many times over the year. While things aren't perfect, I think we run a pretty smooth operation.

I want to thank our Congregational Board, Men's Club, Sisterhood, Cantor Stern, teachers, Julia, Mariela and all who work so hard everyday with dedication and enthusiasm. A heartfelt thank you to all our congregants who sustain us by giving of their time and finances to make our spiritual home grow stronger each day.

This year I would like to focus on commitment. This is your Shul, please come when you can, support our Services and programs. Remember we are here for you.

May you and your families be written in the Book of Life for a sweet year.

L' Shanah Tovah,

Howard M Silverman, President

FROM THE MEN'S CLUB PRESIDENT

Shalom Chaverim,

I hope everyone has had a good summer. Your Men's Club again garnered a Quality Club Award that was presented during the FJMC Biennial Convention in July. Your Men's Club board works very diligently to provide quality programs and events to our members.

Men's Club led Shabbat services on August 16. Thank you to all who participated.

Your Men's Club board has been busy with planning events for the coming year. Our new Sukkah frame is in and will be ready for assembly. The following Sunday, September 15, we will complete the Sukkah for our Hebrew School to put up decorations.

High Holiday ushering is being set up. Please provide times you can help when called.

On Sunday, September 22, we will have a Steak and Libation in the Sukkah. We are waiting for prices on the food to determine the cost, probably $30.00 per person.
